Pope Benedict XVI

In Advent the hope of Christians is turned to the future but remains firmly rooted in an event of the past. In the fullness of time, the Son of God was born of the Virgin Mary: "Born of a woman, born under the law", as the Apostle Paul writes. We might say that Advent is the season in which Christians must rekindle the hope that they will be able with God's help to renew the world.

And finally: As we continue on our Advent journey, this weekend we encounter the figure of St. John the Baptist, with his clarion call for us to ‘Prepare a way for the Lord’. This can so often be misunderstood by Christians as nothing more than an event of the past calling for the People of Israel to prepare for the mystery of the Incarnation; however, this call still holds good for us today. We, like the People of Israel, are called to ‘Prepare a way for the Lord’, not only for His second coming at the end of time, but also to prepare a way for Him to come daily into our hearts and lives. May this Advent be for each one of us a time of joy filled preparation, a time of clearing out the clutter of the past in order to ‘make straight the way of the Lord’ as he comes to us in love.

May God bless you all. Fr. Craig
