Pope Francis

Today, in the tragedy of a pandemic, in the face of the many false securities that have now crumbled, in the face of so many hopes betrayed, in the sense of abandonment that weighs upon our hearts, Jesus says to each one of us: "Courage, open your hearts to my love".

Data Protection – Live-streaming

Sunday 9.30am Mass, and all weekday Masses will continue to be live-streamed for those who be with us in church. The camera is situated at the front of the church so that only the Sanctuary is visible. If, however, you are sitting on the right side of the church you will become visible, in a way in which you might be recognisable, for a brief moment as you return from receiving Holy Communion. If you do not wish to appear on the live-stream please inform one of the stewards as you enter the church.

Recently Deceased

Of your charity please pray for the repose of the soul of Ann Duckham. Fortified by the Rites of our Holy Mother the Church, on whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. May she rest in peace.

Red Missio Box Holders

At the beginning of Lockdown we suspended the collection of the Red Missio Boxes. We now feel that it is time to collect the monies, however, not in the normal manner. Could we now ask all holders of a Red Mission Box to empty their own box. Please put the money, uncounted, into a bag along with a slip of paper with your name and address. You can then either, bring the bag to Mass and leave it under one of the tables at the back of church, or deliver it to Fr. Craig at the Presbytery. Many thanks.

Pope's Prayer Intention

The Pope's prayer intention for the month of September: Respect for the Planet's Resources. We pray that the planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just and respectful manner.

Live Simply Prayer – Week 42

We pray for all children suffering abuse, or neglect, or hardship.

YOUNG or OLD will you join CAFOD's CAMPAIGN: #CancelTheDebt?

The world's poorest nations are taking a double hit – the global pandemic and its severe economic impacts. Many are facing a potential crisis as they struggle to pay the debts they owe to financial institutions and richer nations. If debts are cancelled, then the money saved could be spent on basic health needs and to support the most vulnerable people in those countries at this time. Last July, finance ministers from the largest economies in the world – the G20 – failed to make progress on this issue. World leaders will be having meetings of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund in October. Our UK leaders have the chance to play a critical role in them. Persuade them to do so. Join CAFOD's photo campaign – Take photo action! Here's what to do: Take a photo of yourself displaying the words, CANCEL THE DEBT, in front of you on a card. Email your photo to campaigns.writer@cafod.org.uk and they will upload it to their campaign on your behalf.

Mass Attendance

As we begin to get used to the 'new norm', with regards to attending Mass, we must continue to guard against becoming complacent with regards to the rules and guidance. Therefore, may I remind you that if you are 'booked in' to a particular Sunday Mass, that is the Mass you must attend. The reason for increasing the number of Sunday Masses was to have fewer people in the church at any given time, and this continues to be the case. Secondly, could I remind you that you must follow the instructions of the stewards, especially with regards to where you are asked to sit. If we pick and choose where we want to sit, not where we are asked to sit, the whole seating arrangement, which is in place, begins to fall apart. The 'new normal', the instructions which are in place are for our safety, and the safety of others, therefore, we must play our part in making the system work!

Life 50th Anniversary – The 'New Normal'

We need to complement our existing school education programmes. With online education this needs funding if we are to support our schools. Please consider an online donation at:

Booking in to attend Mass

There are many of our parishioners for whom coming to Mass is still not an option, either because they are still having to follow strict instructions given by the government, or they are simply not yet ready to make that commitment. If you do fall into either of these two categories I want to assure you of my continued prayers at this time. I can also assure you that you will not be abandoned, the live-streaming of the 9.30am Sunday Mass, and all weekday Masses will continue for as long as is necessary. Once you feel ready, and are able to return to Mass, the 'Booking in form' will remain on the 'Covid-19' page of the parish website until we can resume a more normal practice of public worship, you simply need to complete it and click 'Submit'.

And finally: 'The life and death of each one of us has its influence on others'. This opening line from today's second reading is, I believe, one of the most powerful lines of scripture for anyone who is serious about living the Christian life. Today, perhaps more than at any other time in our history as a race, we have been forced to consider our actions in light of the impact that it will have on others, on the community in which we live, and on the life of the nation. Perhaps one of the most powerful signs of this reality is the wearing of facemasks; masks worn not to protect ourselves from the possibility of contracting the virus, but that we might not pass it on to others. As Christians we are called to be 'people of communion', a people who recognise that our lives, our words and actions, have a profound effect on others. Living a life that is only interested in what is good for me is often a life lived to the detriment of the other; whilst living a life which seeks always the good of the other will, ultimately, bring about the good of the whole, myself included.

May God bless you all. Fr. Craig
