Pope Francis:

The Spirit sheds light on the path of the Church. He is not only the light of hearts, He is the light that orients the Church: He brings clarity, helps to distinguish, to discern. This is why it is necessary to invoke Him often; let us do so today.

And finally:- As the Season of Lent begins our three candidates for reception into full communion with the Church enter a period of 'intense preparation for the Sacraments'. Today, together with Deacon Peter and myself, they will journey to the Cathedral to have their names recorded in the 'Register of the Elect'. This symbolic action reminds us of the image in the Book of Revelation when, at the end of time, the 'Book of Life will be opened', and all whose names are inscribed there will enter into the joys of the Kingdom of Heaven. At our Baptism our names were inscribed in the Book of Life, and we were given the pledge of life eternal in the mansions of the saints. However during our lives, on an almost daily basis, our thoughts, words, and actions hinder us in our progress towards God. Lent is that wonderful time when we, journeying with the Lord in the power of the Holy Spirit, seek to strip away the things that hamper us, so that we can journey onwards free and unhindered by sin.

May God bless you all. Fr. Craig
