Pope Francis:

The Eucharist calls us to love God before everything. This Bread is the Sacrament par excellence of love. Christ offers Himself and breaks Himself for us, and asks us to do likewise, so that our life might become the bread that feeds our brothers and sisters.

This Week's CaFOD Prayer (Eleventh Week in Ordinary Time)

Lord. In my need listen to my voice. I have called to you, help me. Do not forsake me. Do not abandon me.

And finally:- On Friday we celebrated the great Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. In this popular image we see the reality of the God who loves us; who loves us so much that He chose not only to enter into His creation, but also took upon Himself our human nature so as to share in our reality. The image of the Sacred Heart reveals to us a heart, surmounted by a flame of love with burns for us, surrounded by thorns which represent our transgressions, and pierced by the lance of the centurion for our redemption. In the Sacred Heart of Jesus we see the nearness of our God, who, unlike the gods of many other religions, does not stand far removed for the creation that He love, but draws close to us to share in our daily living. Having a devotion to this wonderful image of our God made visible in Christ enables us, through the knowledge of God's love that it conveys, to see beyond all of our daily struggles, worries, and difficulties, reassured as we are by the abiding presence of our Saviour.

May God bless you all, Fr. Craig
