And finally:- In Psalm 132 we read “How good and how pleasant it is when brothers live in unity”. Over the past few week we have watched with horror the events unfolding in the Holy Land, a land that has not know peace since the days of our Lord Himself. This war, and the other atrocities of war taking place all over our world, reveal to us the effects of disharmony, division and hatred – the needless loss of human life. The scriptures of this weekend call upon all people to seek the good of the other, to act with justice and integrity, to “love our neighbour as ourselves”. Our Lord’s linking of the need to love our neighbour with the commandment to “love the Lord your God” demonstrates to us that it is impossible to love God, whom we cannot see, if we are incapable of loving the people that we can see. In these days of trouble, uncertainty, and division, let us commit ourselves to praying for peace, forgiveness, harmony and love – that the peace which Christ came to bring may be truly established on the earth, and that all peoples may live in unity.

May God bless you all, Fr. Craig
